Kotiyagalla Field Single Estate Black Tea

The purest of all black teas, grown at 2200 meters above sea, in perfect climatic conditions for 150 years. Handpicked and packed at the Kotiyagalla estate, this gourmet tea is named after the Leopards Rock at the Bogawantalawa Plantation. Rich in flavour and colour, it holds the essence of expertise in tea.

Campion Field Single Estate Black Tea

It is like the French Champagne of teas – grown on the best tea trees in the best field of the best estate and strictly controlled during all steps of growing, picking, processing, packaging and shipping. Unique in the tea world, this magnificent leaf, grown surrounded by rainforest and natural fresh water springs, has hints of malt and a reddish glow, making it a connoisseur's delight.

Pure Black

The third variety of pure black Single Estate Tea, each with their unique character. This is a stronger tea, brought on by the naturally rich soil of the Loinorn Estate. Enjoy it black or white.

English Breakfast*

Grown and handpicked at the Loinorn Estate, this is an English Breakfast variety of the Pure Black Tea. Slightly reduced in colour and strength, it is suitable to enjoy during morning hours, or simply if you prefer a milder tea. It is the most popular black tea variety in Australia.

Earl Grey*

The Kotiyagalla Estate, known for its dedication to perfect tea, have taken their best black tea and infused it with all natural bergamot flower leaves to give you a mild, exciting variety of this beloved flavour. Neither sweet nor rosy, the Earl Grey is by far the most enjoyed flavoured tea in the world.

Ceylon Green*

This Gunpowder variety is an exotic take on the classical Ceylon Tea, with even more goodness due to a shorter fermentation process. Packed with Antioxidants, nature's way to prevent ageing; it is greener in colour and milder in flavour. Green Tea is claimed to be the best natural product against disease, and it is the way to enjoy a different cup.

Chai

With recipes dating back thousands of years, the mystique of oriental herbs and spices infuse this remarkable tea with hints of vanilla and cinnamon. Drink it plain or sweetened, with or without milk for a truly exotic taste sensation. The base is the Kotiyagalla Pure Black Tea, unobtrusive and subtle.

Lemon

Based on the naturally mild Campion Estate Tea, and flavoured with natural lemon peel, this variety is a lot subtler and mellow than the traditional lemon teas, often created by squeezing lemon juice into black tea. The freshness of citrus against the base of black tea blends into delightful taste experience.

Peppermint*

A selective blend of black and green teas with the refreshing addition of fresh peppermint leaves give a fresh, cleansing feeling. It is one of the most popular of the very traditional blends, dating back more than 3000 years.

Chamomile*

The pure Chamomile flower contains many of the good things about tea and offers a mild, soothing brew that is naturally caffeine free. It is therefore often enjoyed in the late afternoon or evening to relax after a long day. Sensitive dietary requirements also embrace this delightful variety.
